

U. S. TANKS LEAD RED DRIVE ON KHARKOV

AWAIT NAMING POSTMASTER FOR MARION

Certification of Three Eligibles
Expected To Be Next Development.

The next step in the selection of a Marion postmaster, following the announcement of the list of eligible candidates, is the appointment of a commission, which will be made up of three men eligible for appointment. This would pave the way for selection of one of the three to fill the job.

One of the points of uncertainty which will make the choice of the three eligibles after the service commission has been made.

Party Choice Predicted
It is generally conceded that the postmaster, despite the old service method of selecting eligibles, is still a matter of political patronage, and consequently the job is virtually certain to go to a Democrat, barring an extreme situation such as a circumstance in which all three of the eligibles are Republicans.

Since the Eighth district of Marion is a part of a Republican congressional district, the postmaster is regarded as Democratic patronage. Congressman F. C. Smith is not expected to be given opportunity to make the selection.

Probable Procedure
Most political observers expect the selection to be referred to the state Democratic patronage committee, which in turn is expected to consult the Marion county Democratic executive committee before nominating anyone for the office. If that procedure is followed, the Marion county committee headed by Dr. C. J. Altmeyer will express a choice, and it will be to the state patronage committee which, if satisfied, would send it along to Washington. There it is expected to come before the President, who would formally make the appointment and send it to the senate for confirmation. If the senate confirms it, the postmaster will be named.

"If speed is essential," the area engineer, Capt. R. L. Lockridge, said, "and all of the cars are used up, the delay in getting a car may be serious; let's walk."

It has been announced that all officials will take necessary steps to reduce the operation of motor vehicles to a minimum in all defense efforts.

The conservation of rubber and gasoline has become a matter of extreme importance to the production of the war, army officials stated. "Conservation falls upon the services equally with the civilian section of the population."

Training Center To Use Idle N. Y. C. Shops and County Fairgrounds.

By W. T. BUCHANAN
Marion Star News Editor
BUCYRUS, May 15.—The New York Central railroad repair shops, once one of the mainstays of Bucyrus industrial life, soon will be humming with activity again.

Renewal of work at the shops, lying in the eastern section of the city, will give Bucyrus a taste of army life for the army has taken over the plant.

The shops will be the headquarters for 753rd Engineer Battalion, a railroad shop unit, now in the process of development. For several weeks officers of the battalion have been on the scene, laying the groundwork for the arrival of the first enlisted men and selectees. Headquarters of the battalion will be at the Crawford county fairgrounds, a short distance east of the railroad shops.

First Induction Arrive
The first contingent of men from induction centers arrived at Bucyrus this week. Others are expected over the week-end. Battalion officers, however, were unable to say when the unit would reach full strength. In addition to their work at the railroad shops the men will be given some military training.

U. S. FIGHTING SCOPE GROWS WIDER DAILY

President Cites Broader Activities in Ordering Army To Take Over Planes.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Declaring that more transport planes are needed, President Roosevelt told a press conference today that we are getting into actual fighting more and more and at more places all the time.

The Chief Executive spoke of increased American fighting in various parts of the world during a discussion of his order permitting the war department to take over control of all the planes of commercial air lines.

We need all the planes we can get, he said. Every kind is being taken over, he added, including what he termed jumper planes and one or two-man ships. He asserted that almost anything that can fly is useful to the government.

No Answer Given

The President did not elaborate on what new fronts American might be fighting soon. Nor did he care to answer a question as to whether American troops had taken part in the British occupation of the French island of Madagascar near strategic United Nations supply lines in the Indian ocean.

The airline order means that domestic airline travel will be placed on a full wartime basis in the near future, with the army operating or controlling the nation's entire fleet of more than 300 transport planes.

Mr. Roosevelt recalled at his conference that it was not so many years ago that the American people got along without commercial flying services and without air mail, and suggested that probably they could get along with a limited amount of these services now.

The people, he said, will understand. He said he was inclined to think there was an increasing necessity in this country for curtailing private plane travel.

Asked whether his words should be taken to mean that he thought there would be no shortage of railway coach traveling facilities, the President suggested that people could stand up. He said, however, he should not think there would be any problem for the time being, particularly since more people would be sticking at their jobs this summer and not going away, either by automobile or train.

War Department Acts

The war department, acting on instructions of President Roosevelt, announced last night the army would take over operation of 80 or more of the airlines, while approximately 70 others will be converted into cargo carriers, to be operated by airline personnel for the military.

The remaining planes, about half of those now in service, will continue commercial schedules for the time being, but will be considered always available for emergency military missions.

"Air travel vital to the country's needs will continue, subject to a strict system of priorities," the announcement said. "All persons who can travel by train are to do so, except in real emergencies."

While air travel will continue to be carried over remaining routes, it was added that "it may become necessary to curtail this service more at a later date." Priorities for passenger travel, in effect for months, will be made stricter. Even members of the armed forces or persons engaged in war work will not be guaranteed seats.

The announcement said the department "follows the intent of the law setting up the air lines as an element of national defense and has been drawn up for the purpose of further utilizing in the war effort the equipment of the air lines and the valuable experience of their trained personnel."

"The war department is confident of the complete cooperation of both the carrier companies and the general public in putting it into operation promptly and effectively."

McNary Holds Interest in Oregon Primary

PORTLAND, Ore., May 15.—Interest in Oregon's primary election today centered on the Republican race for U. S. senator in which the prosecution of the war has been the dominant campaign issue.

Senate Minority Leader Charles McNary is opposed by Arthur L. McNary, Portland attorney, who declared that McNary failed to reveal the necessity of preparation before the Pearl Harbor attack and has not been willing to accept responsibility for the war.

Remnants of British Burma Army Straggle Into India

5,000 Men Cross Border; Japs Increase Air Strength in East India Bases.

CLIMAXING a bloody five-month battle against hopeless odds, the last weary remnants of the British army in Burma have crossed into Manipur state in eastern India, it was reported today, while the Vichy radio declared Japanese troops had advanced 80 miles into India along the Bay of Bengal.

The Vichy broadcast quoted vague and unconfirmed reports that the invaders had reached a point within 16 miles of Chittagong, only 210 miles from the great Indian metropolis of Calcutta.

The withdrawal of the last British force, estimated at 5,000 men, followed a dogged retreat from the bomb-riddled city of Mandalay and a Japanese thrust which separated the British from the Chinese allies commanded by the American Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell.

At last reports, Gen. Stilwell's forces were stubbornly resisting a Japanese advance up the Burma road some 125 miles into China proper.

In eastern China, a Tokyo broadcast credited Japanese forces with inflicting a heavy defeat on the main body of the 22nd Chinese division in a battle 17 miles northwest of Kichunghen, in central Honan province.

Allie headquarters in Australia today reported a notable increase in Japanese land-based air strength on New Guinea and New Britain was indicated when 35 planes participated in one of two raids on Port Moresby yesterday and that allied attacks on the Japanese bases were meeting considerably stronger opposition.

The raids on Port Moresby, first by 13 fighter planes and then by 26 bombers and nine fighters, were declared to have hit not a single worthwhile objective, but the large number of planes was taken as an indication that the Japanese were willing to pay a high price to prevent use of that southern New Guinea city as an allied air base.

Two of the fighters were shot down in flames, and they lost seven others out of a flight of 17.

Texas Woman Named Army Auxiliary Head

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Mrs. William P. Hobby of Houston, Tex., today was appointed director of the women's army auxiliary corps by Secretary of War Simon as President Roosevelt directed that the new organization be limited to 25,000 members now.

The President signed the legislation passed this week by congress, authorizing a corps of up to 150,000 women volunteers for non-combatant service, and issued an executive order directing that in the first step toward organization units not more than 100 units be established and that the enrollment be no more than 25,000.

The list of volunteers to sell the 4,000 poppies ordered for the 1942 campaign was completed today by the chairman, Mrs. W. E. Orcutt, and her co-chairman, Mrs. C. L. Lander.

The 40 at boxcar will be parked at the courthouse and will serve as headquarters for the chairman and the treasurer of the auxiliary, Mrs. L. M. Sherman.

which rose to try to intercept long-range allied bombers hampering shipping in the harbor of Rabaul, New Guinea. All the allied planes returned safely after damaging at least one transport.

Another formation of bombers simultaneously attacked the Japanese seaplane base in the Debby-one island group off the southeast tip of New Guinea, sinking an enemy seaplane and setting fire to shore installations, headquarters said.

The Japanese struck back by twice attacking Port Moresby, but were reported to have lost two.

GREAT BATTLE STILL RAGES AT STEEL CITY

Russians Report Heavy Losses Inflicted on Enemy; Nazis Gain at Kerch.

By The Associated Press
Led by American-made tanks, Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's armies were reported to have advanced seven miles beyond the Donets river today in their big offensive against Kharkov, the Soviet "Pittsburgh," after annihilating more than 150 German tanks in two days.

In the Crimea, Hitler's field headquarters asserted that Russian defenders of the heights before Kerch, short cut to the great Caucasus oil fields, had been driven back and that German-Rumanian columns were at the gates of the town.

The Nazi communique mentioned tersely that fighting was continuing in the battle for Kharkov.

Soviet front-line dispatches said the Red army steadily were pressing forward, crushing Nazi counterattacks, capturing a number of nearby communities, and advancing over roads littered with hundreds of German bodies, smashed tanks and cannon.

Red Star, the Russian army newspaper, said the battle was "another heavy defeat" for the Germans, who have held Kharkov since last October.

Tank Forces in Battle
The newspaper said both sides threw in powerful tank forces and that Soviet tanks forced a water barrier, split the Germans' troop concentration and drove a wedge into the enemy defenses.

"Then our infantry moved into the breach and consolidated the occupied positions," Red Star said.

Military dispatches said the Russians, attacking on a 35-mile front, were now only 20 miles from the heart of Kharkov, with the Germans "retreating slowly" and awaiting reinforcements.

A British spokesman said Adolf Hitler's high command already had thrown German reserves into the conflict without stemming the Russian assault. The Red army, he said, had penetrated Nazi lines "in considerable depth."

The Russians advanced over roads littered with hundreds of German bodies and many smashed tanks and cannon, said Red Star, official army paper.

It described the whole continuing operation as "another heavy defeat" for the Germans who have held the important Ukrainian steel city since October.

All Soviet accounts emphasized the gigantic nature of Marshal Semyon Timoshenko's Kharkov offensive.

"A major tank combat took place in one sector," said Red Star.

Force Water Barrier

"Forcing a water barrier, our tanks by a powerful thrust split the enemy's concentration of troops and drove a wedge into his defenses."

"Then our infantry moved into the breach and consolidated the occupied positions."

Apparently referring to the same action, other reports said the Red army was operating on the west bank of a large river which had crossed earlier while the stream still was ice-coated.

"The Germans blew up all bridges, but the Russians threw up new ones and poured across during a storm of German aerial bombs. They then fanned out on the western shore."

The first line of German defenses, which the Russians said was captured two days ago, was described as a vast zone of pillboxes, anti-tank obstacles, minefields and fortified farmhouses covering every open space with a heavy crossfire of artillery.

The Russians said they held the initiative on the southwestern front, having destroyed 28 German planes in that area on Wednesday and Thursday against the loss of three of their own.

While this battle unfolded, the Soviet information bureau acknowledged that "stubborn fighting" continued on the Kerch peninsula. Two Russian withdrawals have been acknowledged there, where the Germans are attempting to occupy the narrow tongue of land which is a short cut to the Caucasus and its vital oil.

On the Crimean front, 360 miles below Kharkov, a Soviet comm-

21.5 BU. AN ACRE, OHIO WHEAT OUTLOOK

Estimate Is Down from 25 Bushels Last Year.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., May 15—The federal-state crop reporting service estimates that Ohio's 1942 winter wheat crop would average 21.5 bushels an acre, compared with 25 bushels last year and a 10-year average of 20.1 bushels. The total state yield was set at 37,410,000 bushels on the basis of May 1 conditions, against 48,980,000 bushels last year and a 10-year average of 40,718,000 bushels. About 1,740,000 acres are in wheat this year, a 2 per cent drop from 1941.

The federal government called for a reduction in wheat growing this year and increases in poultry and dairy products as part of its "food for victory" campaign.

Milk production averaged 17.8 pounds a cow from herds of Ohio crop reporters on May 1, compared with 17.6 pounds a year earlier and a 10-year average of 16.3 pounds.

Ohio egg production for the first four months of 1942 aggregated 865,000,000, a 10 per cent increase over the corresponding period last year. The total ranked Ohio fifth nationally. Iowa was first. The April total was 303,000,000 eggs compared with 272,000,000 in April, 1941, for Ohio.

Jap Beetles Also On Extermination List for America

WASHINGTON, May 15—Japanese beetles, like another variety of Japanese, will be marked for extermination, if Senator Burton (R-Ohio) has his way.

"Why argument," he explained, "is that it would be a shame if we won the war against the Japs and lost it to the Japanese beetles."

Noting that Congress appropriated $427,275 for beetle-control last year, Burton suggested to the senate appropriations committee that a proposed $350,000 of well-directed efforts to fight the pest. The committee decided against the cut.

Asked if he didn't think it more important to kill Japanese with bombers than to slay beetles, Burton conceded that such an argument prevailed in the house but Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) agreed that a "no-control" bill could be carried.

"Why not," asked Bankhead, "kill them both?"

"That is right," Burton said. "Kill them both."

Saying that the front line of the beetle fight was in the middle of Ohio, Burton submitted a letter from John D. Schoenherr, president of the Ohio Nursery and floriculture association, opposing any curtailment of control measures.

"I think this situation, if not corrected, and the letter, 'would be one of the greatest disasters that ever struck the state of Ohio. We have several minor outbreaks in our state and one serious outbreak at Bretenahl in Cleveland."

Schoenherr said the state might be overrun completely in a few years unless there was adequate federal control.

Burton also opposed reduction in appropriations for combatting fruit insects, Dutch elm disease, corn and large insects, and for bee culture, barberry eradication and similar activities.

He declared that a proposed $11,000 cut in appropriations against fruit insects would eliminate the grape laboratory at Sandusky, maintained by the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine for the purpose of studying grape-pest problems.

The committee disapproved the reduction after Burton said the laboratory tested for entire grape belt of the Great Lakes. A letter from J. S. Houser of the Ohio agricultural experiment station at Wooster, Burton said, predicted that discontinuance of the Sandusky laboratory "would be calamitous to the grape industry."

BIG ONE GETS AWAY FROM POSTMASTER AT AGOSTA

Bandaged Hand Evidence of Battle With Fish M. Lost.

There are some mighty big fish in the Scioto river south of Agosta, and they're also averse to being caught, if you ask Preston D. Cleveland, postmaster of that village. They will even put up a fight for freedom. Cleveland states, and for proof he will show you a bandaged left hand.

The postmaster went fishing about one-half mile west of the bridge that spans the river south of Agosta, as recent as last week, and hooked what he believed was the prize fish of his career. With no little effort he landed his catch on the bank and even got it off the hook, but it wriggled back into the river. Not wishing to lose his prize Cleveland waded into the river, caught it and the battle was on. The fish won the bout and when the struggle was over the postmaster not only had lost the fight but had a broken forefinger on his left hand. He'll be mending splints for a while at least.

Cleveland refuses to hazard even a guess as to the size of the fish but declares it was a "whopper." He hints that it might be a distant relative of a shark.

News of Ordnance Plant

Head and Assistant Named

Scot Ordnance Plant officials announced today Lt. William J. Keegan, 28, has been ordered to duty with the plant as audit officer. He has been employed as auditor with the federal power commission.

Prior to his transfer here, he was with the 29th division as an infantry officer. Lt. Keegan will organize an audit division for the administration of the operation contract with the U. S. Rubber Co.

He graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1935 with an A. B. degree. He majored in accounting and in 1937 he became a certified public accountant.

For four years preceding 1939 he was employed with Haskins and Sells, certified public accountants in Chicago. In 1939 he went to the federal power commission and was engaged in the

"Forgotten" Setter Increased to Nine

The Scioto News, official organ of the Ordnance plant, today reported the following incident: T. W. Meyer, chief of Huntington Co. guards, lost one large and eight tiny setters this week when a farmer returned to pick up his "forgotten" dog.

Instead of finding just one Irish setter, the excited farmer found nine dogs. Hungry, cold and cross, the mother dog guarded her charges well until Mr. Meyer showed her kindness and food. They were discovered May 4 in a rubbish heap in an empty garage.

"Victory" Added To Scioto's Meaning

A story behind the name which the new Ordnance plant here bears appears in this week's issue of the Scioto News and was written by J. Z. Burgee, resident partner of the firm of Holabird and Root.

The name, he states, is recognized as being of Indian origin. "Other than knowing that a river flowing through Ohio bore the same name, I had no knowledge of the word," he writes. "This is a confession that the meaning of the word 'Scioto' was unknown to me. It was interesting to learn that the original was 'Seeyotah' in the Wyandot tongue, meaning 'great legs.' This name they gave to the stream flowing from Lake Erie to the Ohio river.

"Like a giant octopus," Mr. Burgee continues, "the Scioto reaches out with its 12 important tributaries stretching over 9,000 square miles of the most beautiful fertile land in the state.

"Near the city of Marion we find the Big and Little Scioto rivers. Taking the liberty of interpreting the meaning as 'far reaching' we are confident that the news of the products from the project will be far reaching in their contribution to vict

Women Employees and Their Jobs

Democratic Leaders Attacked by Durbin

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 15.—Francis W. Durbin, member of the state Democratic central committee, today attacked the action of a group of Ohio party leaders who urged Ray T. Miller, former Cleveland mayor, to become a candidate for governor.

The Allen county Democratic chairman, in a statement issued at Lima, declared:

"For any organization or group to endorse any person for nomination is defeating the principles of the party primary for which we fought for many years. The rank and file of the Democratic party are against organizational

SURE, I'M PATTING MYSELF ON THE BACK

I'M ADDING 50% TO THE LIFE OF MY MOTOR* with new V.E.P.

*Scientific tests, plus over 3 million miles of road travel, prove that by using V.E.P. your motor will actually last half again as long as it would using ordinary oil.

ENTIRELY NEW! ENTIRELY DIFFERENT!

V.E.P. is an alloyed oil

LOOK AT IT THIS WAY. For every 1,000 miles of service you have left in your motor, using ordinary oil... you get an extra 500 miles using V.E.P. That's right, 50% longer motor life... 50% more miles between costly overhauls. And while V.E.P. is helping conserve your motor, it's putting real savings in your pocket on gasoline and oil. Isn't that a mighty good reason for stopping in at your Marathon dealer's and switching to V.E.P. today?

35¢ PER QUART AT YOUR MARATHON DEALER'S

SAVES GASOLINE. V.E.P.'s cleaning action frees valves and piston rings... gives you a tighter seal... saves lost compression... turns gasoline into power instead of waste. A clean motor is a more efficient motor, a more economical motor.

SAVES OIL. By freeing valves, rings, unplugging the slots in your oil rings, V.E.P. prevents burning of excessive oil in combustion chamber, conserves it, instead.

SAVES WEAR

THREE TIMES THE RESISTANCE to "Shock" caused by quick starts, high speeds, motor braking to extreme heat and pressure of today's motors

AVOID "FIRST-MINUTE" BANGS. A "cogwheel" like rim of a tire digs to cylinder walls over and over... gives protective lubrication... gives protective lubrication during critical warm-up period

SAVES YOUR MOTOR OF HARMFUL SLAGS, CARBON, VARNISH. "Housecleaning" motor... then keeps it clean. Protects against harmful acids caused by products of combustion

CHAPTER THREE Difficult Problem

"LIZZIE," said Kathleen, "where's Uncle Frank?" "He's fussing with his chickens," Lizzie replied. "He's done it." She turned to Joe. "How do you want 'em' eggs?" "Fried," said Joe. "On both sides."

"Yes," said Lizzie. "I must say," Kathleen remarked when she and Joe were alone, "that you certainly aren't shy when it comes to letting the world know what you want."

"No," said Joe. "And if you think I'm going to be shy about letting the world know I want you, you're wrong—bad wrong."

He ate his grapefruit in silence. "Now," he went on presently, "about this career business. Are you still determined to leave me waiting at the church?" "You've never gotten that far with me yet," Kathleen retorted. "But if you mean am I still determined to find out about my and popped it into his mouth. "If that Rhode Island Red rooster of mine doesn't walk off with all the prizes at the County fair in October, I don't know a prize-winner when I see one."

He stopped short, and eyed the two young people. "Say, what's going on here?" he asked. "You two look as though you were facing each other across a trench instead of the breakfast table."

"It's the same old thing," Mr. Frank, said Joe wearily. "Kath-

Joe pushed aside his well-cleaned grapefruit rind. "Very well," he said, "that means I go on with my picketing—out front, in front of the theatre, wherever you happen to be."

"Why—you—you—"

leen's determined to have a career—or to try for one, anyway."

"All girls go through the stage-struck phase, sonny," said Uncle Frank. "Especially girls like my charming niece, who have been local leading ladies."

"I wish," said Kathleen, "that you would stop discussing me as though I were a symptom, or something."

"Sorry, Ducky," said Uncle Frank.

Help For Joe

Kathleen didn't finish. Uncle Frank appeared in the doorway. "Good morning, youngsters!" he greeted. He walked to the table, picked up a lump of sugar

Uncle Frank looked at Joe. Joe looked at Uncle Frank. They realized they were up against a decidedly difficult problem.

"Once upon a time," Uncle Frank began, "I knew an actress. She was slim, and blond, and easy on the eyes—but she could not forget herself for a moment. She was always looking in mirrors. I heard that she even had a mirror arranged so that she could see her reflection the last thing at night and the first thing in the morning."

"What has that got to do with me?" Kathleen demanded. "Play!" said Uncle Frank. "You want to be an actress. And I have learned from experience that the moment most girls become actresses they consider themselves something set apart—something very, very special, and—well, dammit, Kathleen, I don't want you to get like that."

"Miss Kathleen," Lizzie called from the hall, "you've wanted on the telephone."

"Thank you, Lizzie," said Kathleen. And then: "Just a moment. I want to speak to you."

"Yes'm," said Lizzie.

Kathleen joined her, and they moved off together.

Joe frowned. "Who in heck could be calling her—I wonder," he said suspiciously.

Well, sonny," said Uncle Frank, "you can be certain it's not any of that theatrical gang. They never get up as early as this."

Joe stopped frowning. He beamed upon Lizzie, who was just entering with his bacon and eggs and hot biscuits. He gave them his attention. Kathleen's voice coming to him faintly from the telephone in the rear of the hall. But he looked up quickly when she came back into the dining room.

"It must have been swell news," he remarked, "judging from the look on your face."

Marion Soldier and Date Featured in Picture Story

Army life may be the well known headache when it comes to answering reveille and other routine chores, but when a soldier is on leave, has a date, goes places and does things and for good measure, gets his picture, together with his date on the whole page of a newspaper, well that's something to write home about. That's just what happened to a Marion soldier, First Class Private Paul Schwaderer, 25, cavalryman, son of Mrs. Eva Walska of 215 Spencer street, stationed at Fort Ord, Calif.

The story, told in pictures and captioned "Army Boy Meets City Girl for a War Date," was featured on the front page of the Los Angeles Herald Express recently.

"Now that it's war, how meets girl, under different circumstances," the lines read. The other half of the date is Shirley Gray, 19, Los Angeles telephone exchange girl. The couple met at the USO center in the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles when Paul, with a three-day pass in his pocket, arrived for a little vacation. They were introduced by Mrs. Douglas Corner, vice chairman of the canteen committee. Pictures show the pair doing a bit of target practice with the anti-aircraft automatic in a penny arcade, on a boatride in the park with Shirley at the wheel, going to a movie, with Paul buying the tickets with a "reg. spot" and dancing in a Hollywood hotel. From the pictures and reports from the camp Hollywood talent scouts would do well to give the soldier a second look.

Paul's outfit took a prominent part in the Army day observance and the souvenir edition of the Fort Ord "Panorama," the fortnightly publication, contains a number of pictures of the cavalry and meanized unit as it passed in review. Mrs. Walska has another son, Harold J. Schwaderer in service. He is a private stationed at Camp Claiborne, La.

Dodgers Stop Bucs 7-2 To Stretch National League Lead to 3½ Games

Giants Score 10 Runs in Eighth To Beat Cincinnati Reds 12-6.

By The Associated Press

The Brooklyn Dodgers have most of their power concentrated in left-handed batters — Dolph Camilli, Pete Reiser, Dixie Walker, and Arky Vaughan — and some of their best pitchers the National League champions could be stopped this season by south-paw pitching.

This is just one more theory that has been shattered by the Flatbush Follies, who have succeeded in beating the last five left-handers sent against them and now have a record for the season of eight victories and five defeats by pitchers.

Yesterday they routed Lefty Alden Wilkie with five runs in three innings and batted on to a 7-4 triumph over the second-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Stretch Lead

By capturing the first session of their three-game series, the Dodgers increased their margin to 3½ games and destroyed any hopes the Buccaneers may have had of grabbing the National League lead in Brooklyn.

It's the idea of May and the Cincinnati Reds are still backing and filling at the time when the pennant race, at least in the National League, is supposed to be taking form.

Ray Starr, the only Cincinnati pitcher who has been able to win as many as three games without taking a licking, is the hurler as the Reds see if they back or fill today against the Giant Prince Hal Schumacher is the New York pitcher.

The Reds seven up yesterday's game early out the Giants won 4, 12 to 6, mainly because they erupted all over the lot with 10 runs in the eighth inning. Litter Riddle, Joe Briggs, Bucky Walters and Clyde Shoun were the victims in general.

Lee Hulis 7-Hit Ball

In the only other National League game big Bill Lee of the Chicago Cubs added more proof to the supposition that he is making a big comeback by pitching a seven-hit 5-3 victory over the Phils. It was Lee's fifth triumph. The Braves themselves made only eight hits off Rube Melton and Bill Taylor.

Action in the American league was confined to two games.

The Chicago White Sox halted the five-game winning streak of the Philadelphia Athletics 9-4. The A's made four errors and were held to seven hits by Phil Dietrich while Myril Hoag drove in four runs with three singles.

John Niggeling pitched six-hit ball and Roy Cullenbine and Chet Lamba hit home runs as the St. Louis Browns beat the Boston Red Sox 4-3.

Tobin's Terrific Batting Is Result of Friendly Feud

By The Associated Press

BOSTON—Now that Jim Tobin, the Boston Braves' knuckleball artist, has broken into the record book as the first major league pitcher in history to hit three consecutive home runs in one game, he threatens to set another new hurler's slugging mark to insure domestic tranquility.

"You know Ernie Lombardi not only is from Oakland, Calif., neighbor in the off-season but he also is boarding with us just now. And I have to get just as many homers as he does to have any peace at home," the good-natured Tobin explained Wednesday after he had banged out his fourth circuit drive in his last five trips to the plate and his fifth of the season.

"I don't want to hear any more about your hitting," Jim warned the grinning Lombardi.

"You'll be playing every day and I'll be out only every fourth game or so, but I'm going to get just as many homers as you do," he threatened his catcher-brother.

If Tobin can make good on that boast, he will have little difficulty erasing all major league season records for hurlers. Wes Ferrell set the American league mark by getting nine in 18 games for Cleveland in 1931 and Hal Schumacher's six in 44 games for the Giants has been the National League's record since 1934. Lombardi has hit as many as 20 homers in one season and has averaged 11 a year since he broke in with the Dodgers back in 1931.

Tobin broke in with Pittsburgh in 1937 but until this season, he had made only two major league homers.

"Ernie has been telling me that you can't get a homer with your bat on your shoulder," Tobin continued. "He has been urging me to go up there and take a good swing and that's what I've been doing."

Y.M.C.A. - Sponsored Softball Leagues To Open Monday; Full Schedule Set

Softball leagues for three Y.M.C.A. divisions were released today by Charles A. Turner, 1911 E. Main street secretary.

The league season opened officially last Monday with Attorney John Clark, Edwin Bishop, coveing 16-0 to the Greenwood

Seniors. Remainder of the league games originally scheduled to be played last week were postponed one week because of tardiness of teams in submitting entry fees and eligibility lists.

The 7-team Commercial league, will open Monday night on three fronts. The Smith Clothing team, composed of former Harding High school athletes under the direction of Howard Gilbert will meet the DeMolay team at Lincoln park, Moose Lodge and Waldo independents will play at Garfield park and Coca Cola will meet the Harding Senior Hi-Y team at Presidents field, adjacent to McKinley park.

All games this summer will start at 8:30, Secretary Turner said.

The Sunday School league which previously operated on Monday nights will be held this year on Tuesdays, while the Industrial league which usually operated on Fridays will be played on Thursdays because of the late-closing hour observed on Fridays by Marion merchants.

Members of the city commission today urged all teams to complete registration of team members before their opening games. Team managers were requested to obtain an umpire if they already have not obtained one. Names of umpires must be on file with Secretary Turner at the Y.M.C.A. it was reported.

BROWN SINGLES OUT PROBABLE STARTING O. S. U. GRID TEAM

Gallon and Bucyrus Players Among Squad Members; Spring Training Ends.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 15—Two seniors, five juniors and four sophomores—all light, but fast and full of fight—will make up Ohio State university's starting football team next fall.

Paul E. Brown, chief of the depleted Buckeye coaching staff, said so today. As he split his squad into "Reds" and "Whites" for tomorrow's regulation game, winding up the spring training chores.

But there are, said Brown, some "ifs"—if I don't change my mind, if the draft doesn't get some of the boys, if they all remain eligible and stay in school, and if some second or third stringer doesn't beat out one of the boys in the fall.

Sarrinhaus To Start

On the "Red" team, which Brown said would be his starting force in the September inaugural, are: seniors—Leslie Horvath of Parma at right half and Bill Vickroy of Toledo at center; juniors—Capt. George Lynn of Niles at quarterback, Paul Sarrinhaus of Hamilton at left half, Charles Curn of Cleveland at right tackle, and Hal Dean of Wooster and Lynn Houston of Massillon at the guards; sophomores—Gene Feltelle of Findlay at fullback, Horace Gilliam of Massillon and Dante Lavelli of Hudson at the ends, and Bill Willis of Columbus at left tackle.

"That," Brown declared, "is one of the lightest Ohio teams in history, if not the lightest. Only the two tackles are over the 200-pound mark, and they don't have any to spare. But they're all fast, and that's what we want."

"The entire squad," he continued, "is made up mostly of small fellows from small towns. Of the first 33 on the roster, only three are from Cleveland, two from Toledo and two from Columbus. The big towns just don't seem to produce the kids we need, but we'll make good use of the boys from such spots as Gahanna, Shadyside, Crestline, West Jefferson, Greenville, Hudson, Parma, Wooster and Massillon. They're rugged boys and good 'uns."

Gallon, Bucyrus Boys

Starting for the "Whites" with some 500 high school coaches looking on after attending the university's two-day grid clinic starting today, will be Capt. Dick Palmer of Cleveland at fullback; Tom James of Massillon and Bull Dutschik of Gallon at the halves; Paul Friday, the West Jefferson flash, at quarterback; John White of River Rouge, Mich., and Cecil Saunders of Bucyrus at the ends; Jim Ross of Greenville and Don

(Turn to BROWN, Page 13)

TRIBE ACE

Here is the sensational hitting Colonel "Buster" Mills, rookie outfielder, whose heavy sack work was one of the surprising factors in the thrilling streak that put the Cleveland Indians in the first division in the American league pennant chase. Playing as a regular center fielder when a southpaw opposes the Indians, Mills has batted over .500.

In last night's fight, followed his usual pattern just enough hair pull mayhem to give the crowd of a lynching. At least, it attacked Billings while along the edge of the run.

The Greek package of mite floored the Farmer minutes to gain the first of a crab hold. Farmer Jones back with blood in his eyes scored in 20 seconds with a kick in reverse and a body. The second fall went to the er when he whirled Billings into a full-body spin and a head stand.

Kalmukoff, the Mad Russian, made an impressive local in the semi-final match, youthful Tony Ross' streak. Like Billings, he previously won decisions some of the best fighters in the Russian took the fight with a spin and head of nine minutes. Ross even match at one fall apiece by ing a body press after applying head lock for almost five minutes.

After freeing himself from head lock hold, the Russian maintained in a semi-conscious clearing the way for the pass. Kalmukoff won the fall in three minutes with a hold.

Lefty Pacer, the Toledo and long-standing member officiating circuit, was de winner of the 30-minute pary bout when Sailor making his first appearance as a referee, disqualified Davidson of Kodlak, Alaska, choking.

By The Associated Press

EVANSTON, Ill., May 15—Buckeye team strength solely on best recorded performances of the season. Ohio State has a chance of claiming 58 points tomorrow to win the Big Ten track and field championship.

On the same basis, Michigan would get 37½, Illinois 27, Indiana 23½, and Minnesota 21.

If the Buckeyes continue in the same stride which carried them to the indoor title and to seven of a possible 14 top performances of the season, they should wait to their first Big Ten outdoor championship.

Their share of best marks for the season include: 109.5 in the 100-yard dash and 21.0 in the 220 by Ralph Hammond, 14.5 in the high hurdles and 23.2 in the lows by Bob Wright; 48.0 quarter mile by Russ Owen; 6 foot 4½ inch high jump by George Hoeflinger, and 3.15 3 for the mile relay team.

ST. PAUL WINS 6-5 OVER MINNEAPOLIS

Phil Weintraub Gets Three Doubles for Saints.

By The Associated Press

Early in the season St. Paul went in search of a first baseman, picking up Phil Weintraub, a big fellow with a lot of reach who had served some time in the major leagues and had played at the initial corner for Minneapolis.

Weintraub looked like the answer to a desperate manager's prayer last night.

He got three doubles, the third coming in the ninth inning, with two out to drive in the tying and winning runs, as the Saints collected a cherished 6-5 victory over Minneapolis in the only game played in the American association yesterday.

Toledo at Columbus, Louisville at Indianapolis and Milwaukee at Kansas City were postponed.

PRETTY SAFE RECORD.

By The Associated Press

WARRENSBURG, Mo. — No matter how Vernon Kennedy, pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, fares in the American league, he has one hurling record that is safe for at least another year.

Kennedy, while a student at the Central Missouri State Teachers college at Warrensburg, hung up a Missouri Inter-Collegiate association mark of 196 feet 10 inches in the javelin throw.

The 14-year-old standard went unscathed in the recent conference meet.

OHIO CONFERENCE TO DROP FROTH BARRIER

OVERLIN, O., May 15 — The Ohio athletic conference is expected to give its approval tonight to members who wish to use freshmen in varsity sports competition, after ironing out details as to first-year definitions.

Problems of transporting athletic teams also are due for discussion as conference faculty representatives meet with the Ohio Conference Managers association.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Germs Invade Lungs

THE LUNGS ARE naturally subject to germ invasion more than any other form of disease. Eighteen times a minute for all the years of your life you take into the lungs some of the outside air. In crowded theaters and breathe some of the germs that are sneezed out or coughed up by other people.

In the air there may be not only germs, but dust and molds from plants and other sources. Pollen grains and animal dander. Thus the most frequent respiratory diseases are the common cold, influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, asthma, and in fact this group constitutes the most frequent group of diseases to which human beings are subject.

I say "molds from plants and other sources" for while a physician naturally thinks first of influenza, pneumonia or tuberculosis when he has an acute or chronic case of respiratory infection the number of mold infections that are being discovered is increasing very rapidly. These molds are microscopic vegetable organisms which are much more complicated than the bacteria of ordinary germs.

One case in point of a mold infection which is increasing in frequency is that of the so-called San Joaquin Valley fever of California. Up to about 1935 no case had ever been detected outside of California. In California it was called "valley fever" and "desert fever." In the soil of that region the mold grows in great abundance and probably nearly all the inhabitants acquire an immunity from repeated small infections. This would account for the fact that the disease is almost stationary in incidence in the San Joaquin Valley but has begun to appear in Arizona, New Mexico and other of the western states.

A number of cases have occurred in eastern states, but in all instances, so far as I know, the affected individual had returned from a trip to California or Arizona. In Arizona, however, cases have been reported in individuals who have never gone outside the state, so it must be due to a locally acquired infection.

The onset of the individual may take several forms: an acute form suggesting a cold or influenza with cough and sputum is quite frequent. A more chronic onset is often labeled tuberculosis and the patient put in a sanatorium with that diagnosis. He may remain there for some time before the mold is found in the sputum and the real nature of the condition revealed. Any case which has been labeled tuberculosis and does not run a characteristic course should be suspected of some form of mold infection of the lungs.

San Joaquin Valley fever may run a mild or a severe course, but most cases are mild. In treatment no special drug has been found to be of any particular

Pitfalls of Love

Made Induces Jack To Take Temporary Refuge at Highway and Help Her Father To Rescue Marion.

THE CONSTRUCTION of my throat muscles tightened at Jack's speech, and for a moment I could not answer. Then the clench at my throat loosened and I spoke swiftly, feeling a desperate need to do so.

"What do you mean about not having the chance to talk to me again?" I asked.

"Exactly what I say," he returned inexorably. "Our part when we reach New York—perhaps before."

"You can't do this to us, Jack," I gasped. "Katharine, my father and I, all loyal to you, are ready to guard you with our lives."

Jack a Hunted Man

"That's just it," he returned. "I am a hunted and marked man. Any association with me means grave danger for anyone connected with me. I thought nobody knew of my old association with Professor Diswell, and that I would be safe with him; if anywhere. And now you see what I have brought to him! Will you—"

He looked at me uncertainly, and I finished his question.

"Look after him?" You know I will. But before you talk any more about our ways, nothing, will you please consider Marion?"

"I can understand your reluctance to go to the hotel, and I agree it would be very unwise for you to show yourself in so public a place, even if your very effective disguise. But," I went on, "we are not going first to the hotel."

"Where then?" His question was clipped and curt, with no indication of any lessening of his determination.

"My father has a hideaway in Greenwich Village," I told him. "An ingenious, seemingly innocuous apartment building which he owns and controls."

"There are secret rooms in the place where you could remain indefinitely with safety. But as to that, I will not presume to advise you. I only beg of you to go there long enough to reveal yourself to my father, give him what aid you can about Marion and accept any help he can give you."

His lips set in a stubborn line, and he was silent for so long that I despairingly decided he was going to reject my plans. Then suddenly those stubborn lips quirked into a smile.

"You always were a good special player, Margaret," he said, "and I'll hold this far. I'll go down to your father's hideaway and see him, but I cannot promise to stay there."

value. The best results have come from the use of some of the sulfonamide compounds or from vaccines, but the most important of all is prolonged rest in bed.
